AGED VETERAN GETS BEHIND BARS AGAIN

Sylvester A. Wood Arrested Second Time on Charge of Selling Lottery Tickets.

Sylvester A. Wood, an aged veteran from the National Soldiers' Home, was arrested yesterday by Police Officer Shelton on the charge of selling lottery tickets. Last spring Wood was convicted of selling lottery tickets and fined $20 and costs and given one day in jail. On account of the man's age the sentence was made as light as possible.

Who arrested yesterday the veteran is said to have admitted that he had been selling lottery tickets in Hampton, Phoebus and Old Point, but denied that he had sold any here. He had a number of "Kentucky State Lottery" tickets in his pocket and receipts showing that he had forwarded money and valuable papers to the Modern Supply Company, 15 Pike street, Covington, Ky.

The prisoner will be given a hearing in the police court this morning. If there is a conviction the justice may impose a fine not over $500 and send the prisoner to jail for not more than one year.

ALDERMAN TO MEET

President Jones Calls Special Session of Board For Tonight.

WILL ACT ON "DOG ORDINANCE"

Members are Not Talking, But Indications are That Measure Will Not be Adopted in Its Present Shape—Differance of Opinion.

In accordance with instructions from President Maryus Jones, City Clerk W. L. Cooke yesterday called a special meeting of the board of aldermen for tonight at 8 o'clock. The object of the meeting is to consider and act upon the "dog ordinance" adopted by the common council at its special meeting Monday night.

A petition signed by forty-eight residents of the city caused Col. Jones to have the meeting called.

Although a majority of the members of the board have little to say upon the subject, it is generally believed that the aldermen will refuse to pass the ordinance in its present shape. Many people favor the measure, but there are also many who think it is too stringent and believe that when the present scare is over everybody will be satisfied with a milder ordinance.

The ordinance as adopted by the common council provides that all dogs appearing on the streets of the city shall be muzzled, unless they are led with chain or cord. Any dog found at large on the street without a muzzle is to be taken up and killed and its owner fined.

It is probable that quite a crowd of citizens will gather at the court house tonight to hear the aldermen discuss the measure.
